

Essays in “The Lore and Allure of the Devil’s Rope”

From the Library of: Kansas Barbed Wire Museum, 120 W. 1st Street, P.O. Box 578, La Crosse, Kansas 67548
Written and Compiled by: Bradley Penka

Foreword: How to Use This Material

Part A: Early History

Section 1: Early Fencing – Osage Orange

Section 2: Pre-Barbed Wire Fencing

Section 3: The Forgotten Father of Barbed Wire

Section 4: The Development of Barbed Wire

Section 5: Bet-a-Million Gates

Section 6: Barbed Wire Legal Clashes

Section 7: Kansas Fence Laws

Section 8: Post Rock Limestone

Section 9: The End of the Open Range

Section 10: “Moonshine” Wires

Section 11: Railroads and Barbed Wire

Section 12: Barbed Wire Philanthropy

Section 13: Barbed Wire and Warfare

Part B: The Modern Era

Section 14: The First Collectors’ Show

Section 15: Collecting and Displaying Barbed Wire

Section 16: The Kansas Barbed Wire Museum

Section 17: The Devil’s Rope Museum

Section 18: The Antique Barbed Wire Society